

THROUGH THE TRAP

Harry D. Egbert, a Double Murderer, Pays Penalty With His Life, in Oregon—His Last Words Were of Warning to Boys.

Portland, Or., Jan. 29.—"My friends, you are a condemned man; take me as a man; keep your children off the street, above all, out of the saloons. Gentlemen, my heart aches for you and your children. Bad raising and bad company is the direct result of my sin. That's all. My heart is too full to say much. I have repented my sin."

With the above words fresh on his lips, the trap was sprung exactly at 12:42 o'clock, and Harry D. Egbert, the murderer of John G. Saxton and John West, was executed by hanging at the Oregon State Penitentiary, October 14, 1903, paid penalty with his life for his crime. Egbert died bravely.

Harry Egbert, alias Jack Frost, ex-convict, burglar and murderer, was hanged for one of the bloodiest crimes committed in the State of Oregon, the killing of John G. Saxton and his companion, in the Wild Horse valley, October 14, 1903. Saxton was a well-known attorney of Burns, Or., and was being a deputy sheriff. The Wild Horse valley is an isolated place in southeastern Oregon, about 125 miles from Burns. Saxton and West had been pursuing Egbert for several days and arrested him for a burglary committed at Burns, Or., when they came upon him at the home of Saxton and West. They went to the house Egbert commanded shooting and mortally wounded at almost the first fire. Saxton, inside the house, and he and Egbert exchanged a fusillade of shots through a partition between two rooms. The shooting was unproductive of results and Egbert went outside the house. In response to cries for water from West, who was still alive, Saxton, exposed himself to Egbert's fire, and was himself shot down. Egbert escaped through the woods to Rockwell, Ind., and was captured there three weeks later.

LAWYER UNDER FIRE.

Men Make Serious Allegations Against a Prosecuting Officer.

Mentown, Pa., Jan. 29.—Counsel on behalf of the Bechtel family today made a complaint against District Attorney Lichtenwaller, charging gross and flagrant negligence in his conduct of the prosecution of the case growing out of the murder of Mabel Bechtel and the suicide of Thomas Bechtel.

Mrs. Catherine Bechtel, her daughter, Mrs. Henry Newland, neighbor of Bechtels, made affidavits alleging that District Attorney was in a state of "intoxication" during two days of the trial, making a postponement of case necessary.

It is alleged that he repeatedly visited the Bechtel home on Tuesday, the date of the trial, and that he was in the company of Mabel Bechtel's body.

Protest, Mrs. Bechtel's daughter, and that the District Attorney made improper proposals to her, and Martha Lichtenwaller to similar charges.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO ROOT.

President Expresses Regret at Retirement of War Chief.

Washington, Jan. 29.—President Roosevelt, Secretary Root and Gov. Taft were the principal figures at today's Cabinet meeting. The meeting after the transaction of the usual departmental business developed into a farewell for Secretary Root and a reception for Gov. Taft. President Roosevelt spoke with deep feeling of the retirement of Secretary Root. He wished it understood that, while under the circumstances, he could make no public expression of his feelings without the appearance of trenching on propriety, he was sincerely indebted to Secretary Root for the great work he had done. No one, not even a member of the Cabinet, could realize the labor, self-sacrifice, generosity and disinterestedness which had characterized Secretary Root's career as a member of the Cabinet, or how much his devotion to his great task had meant to the administration and to the country. Especially had all this been true of the Secretary's work during the past six months when he had expended lavishly of his energy and ability, without thought of credit to himself, but solely with the idea of advancing the interests of the President, his successor and the people of the United States.

IS LIKE ARCTIC SEAS.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—Lake navigation this winter has fitted the crews of the steamers in service for a "dash for the pole," for it combines all the experiences of Arctic navigation. Lake Michigan has at last frozen over, the cold spell of the last few days filling up the widely-scattered spots of open water between the ice floes. In most winters there is a wide stretch of open water in mid-lake. At many points along the west shore the ice is piled up solid, until it reaches from the bottom forty feet deep, to an equal distance above the water line. At the crib the ice is piled up until it is higher than the structure. The icebergs are of great size, and how they came to be formed is regarded as a mystery by winter navigators, as the thickest chunks of ice they have seen are not over eighteen or twenty inches through. It is considered by steamboat men that there is not half the danger in winter navigation with the lake frozen over as there is when there are vast moving fields of ice to catch the steamers and crush them. In the past a number of valuable steamers have been crushed by the floes and lost.

MR. JUSTICE FINNEMORE

Judge of the Natal Supreme Court, Sends the Following Remarkable Testimonial

TO CUTICURA

The World Is Cuticura's Field, Used Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated.

"I desire to give my voluntary testimony to the beneficial effects of your Cuticura Remedies. I have suffered for some time from an excess of uric acid in the blood; and since the middle of last year, from a severe attack of Eczema, chiefly on the scalp, face, ears and neck and on one limb. I was for several months under professional treatments, but the remedies prescribed were of no avail, and I was gradually becoming worse, my face was dreadfully disfigured and I lost nearly all my hair. At last, my wife prevailed upon me to try the Cuticura Remedies and I gave them a thorough trial with the most satisfactory results. The disease soon began to disappear and my hair commenced to grow again. A fresh growth of hair is covering my head, and my limb (although not yet quite cured) is gradually improving. My wife thinks so highly of your remedies that she has been purchasing them in order to make presents to other persons suffering from similar complaints, and, as President of the Bible Women's Society, has told the Bible women to report if any case should come under their notice when a poor person is so afflicted, so that your remedies may be resorted to."
